Experience

Full Stack Developer Mar 2025 – Present

Inimist Technologies Mohali

- Engineered and maintained full-stack web applications using Next.js and React.js, contributing to both server-side rendering logic and dynamic, responsive UI components across 1.4+ years of professional experience.
- Built and optimized 10+ reusable React components integrated within a Next.js architecture, cutting average page load time by ~25% and enhancing overall UI responsiveness.
- Integrated 15+ backend APIs and third-party services to enable seamless data flow between frontend interfaces and application logic, cutting integration-related bugs across 5+ modules.
- Improved application performance and code maintainability by 20-30% through component refactoring, efficient state management (using React Hooks/Context API), and adherence to clean coding practices in a full-stack environment.

Projects

AutoAPI | Repository | React.js, Node.js, Express.js, MongoDB)

- Created AutoAPI, a full-stack API testing platform enabling management of multiple workspaces and collections.
- Designed a scalable database structure for request history and collection organization, supporting 70+ API requests with efficient retrieval and tracking.
- Implemented a request management system to store headers, params, authentication, and API responses, cutting repetitive configuration effort by an estimated 40%.

HabitQuest | Repository | React.js, Node.js, Express.js

- Designed & shipped a gamified habit-tracking app using React, enabling users to create, track, and maintain daily & weekly streaks with an engaging UI.
- Rolled out an XP & Badges System, rewarding users with Silver, Gold, and Elite badges for maintaining streaks, lifting repeat engagement among 50+ active users.
- Delivered a dynamic tracking system, letting users visualize progress as a percentage on an interactive streak-map calendar to monitor consistency over time.
- Established an archive feature, preserving habit progress, streaks, and XP, while restricting further modifications to maintain data integrity.
